VIDEO SHARING A STORY
ABOUT THIS YEAR

Everyone has a story about this year. Some of the stories are funny and involve kids creeping in on Zoom meetings. Some of them are about people we lost and milestones we didn't get to celebrate in the usual way. Some of the stories are full of gratitude for someone who went above and beyond with their offer to help. And then some seem so weird that we wouldn't have believed them only a year ago and we wonder how we got to this point and where we go from here. These stories are important.

We were awarded a grant from the ALA, and we want to use the grant money to collect some of these stories and help the community reconnect once the dust settles. Can you record a 2-5 minute video sharing your story (from your phone is fine)? Look for more information on Facebook, Instagram or the Ely Public Library website or use the QR code below.

We know that teachers, students, parents, and school staff have worked so hard this year and we would love to hear your experiences

"Libraries Transforming Communities: Focus on Small and Rural Libraries is an initiative of the American Library Association (ALA) in collaboration with the Association for Rural and Small Libraries (ARSL)."

"This is not a College Community School District publication. It is being distributed through the school district as a community service of the district to inform you of other community activities or services available."
